

Events and Encyclopedias

Multiple Choice Questions.
A) What is a salon?
B) When did new volumes of the encyclopedias come out regularly?

A salon is a social gathering with philosophers, writers, scientists, and other intellectuals.

Marie-Therese Geoffrin was one of the most influential hostesses of the salons.

Denis Diderot wrote the encyclopedias and in 1751 Diderot published the first volume. In 1772 new volumes came out.