By- Felicity Rogers-Whiting

The background(Political, Economic, and Social)

Political factors are they called for a constitutional government, uneducated subjects never heard of Democracy or Liberalism. Economic factors are Food supplies were getting low, and most people lost jobs. Social factors are the Armenians were Christians, and had churches.

The Organizers(Who was responsible and why)

The group responsible was the Turkish government. Why it happened- The Turks and Armenians had big cultural differences. Armenians were more open to Scientific, Political and Social Ideas from West Europe and America.

Victims(What group of people)

The people victimized were the Armenians. Their survival tactics were acquired weapons and fought back and another is some withdrew and lived like the turkish. They had very little food and barely survived. The death toll was 300 Armenian political leaders, Educators,writers.The total was 1,500,000 Armenians that died at that time of the genocide.

World response(How other countries felt)

Response of other countries- Republic of Armenia and the Soviet Union felt angry and scared. Great Britain, France, Russia responded by issuing a warning to Turkey. The warning stated “The allied governments announce publicly that they hold all the members of the Ottoman Government, as well as such of their agents as are implicated, personally responsible for such matters.” Was it preventable? Yes. The Turkish only didn't like the Armenians because they were Christians.

Aftermath(How the genocide affected the families)

The effects on victims and families were families died, newborns were born with a disability. They couldn't care for their kids. The victims felt abandoned and had nothing. They lived in poverty and despair. The country today in the last few years Turkish military officers has been captured and imprisoned including the ex-chief of defense.
