

Group 1 Paris Salons and Diderot's Encyclopedia

A salon is social gathering place where philosophers, writers, artists, scientists, and other great intellectuals met.

Salons helped spread enlightenment ideas through Paris.

1. Who attended the Salons?
A. Government Officials.
B. Church Officials.
C. Philosophers.
D. None of the above

Diderot wanted to spread ideas all throughout Europe so he thought of a book where every enlightenment idea could be written.

The Catholic Church and French government however banned this idea. Luckily, he continued to push his ideas and he created the first Encyclopedia. He began to release a new volume every year until 1772.

2. How did the Government and Church officials react to the Encyclopedia?
A. Happily
B. Didn't care
C. Banned the idea
D. None of the above
