NAZI SYMBOL

VICTIMS OF THE HOLOCAUST

jews were blamed

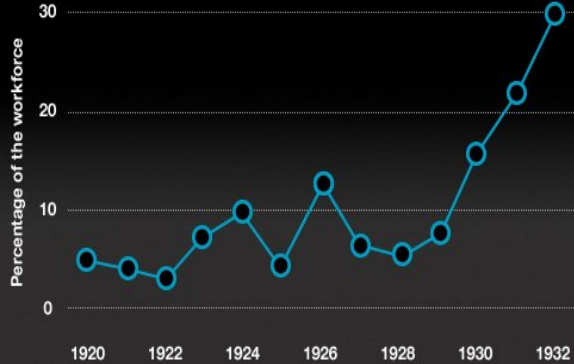

GHETTOS

jews were forced to live in ghettos.

ECONOMY DURING THE HOLOCAUST

German Unemployment 1920 - 1932

EFFECTS OF THE HOLOCAUST

- The Holocaust affected millions
- Over 6 million Jews died

PREVENTABLE

- 1.) If the holocaust were prevented there would be a lot of jews still alive.
- 2.) Americans should have got involved sooner to prevent genocide.
- 3.) Also the economy wouldn't have been as bad.

WHEN OTHER COUNTRIES TOOK NOTICE

- A black and white photograph of a train yard. In the foreground, several sets of railroad tracks run parallel, receding into the distance. The tracks are covered with a layer of snow and scattered debris, including what appears to be a large pile of metal objects, possibly train wheels or parts. In the background, there is a long, dark building with a central tower or watchtower structure. The sky is overcast.
- 1.) When other countries took notice they came to late.
 - 2.) They managed to save some jews but over 6 million jews were killed
 - 3.) They caught the nazis party and they went to trial.

THE NUREMBERG TRIAL

- 1.) Some were sentenced to life or executed
- 2.) twenty two nazi criminals were involved in major parts of the holocaust

HITLER

Hitler killed himself on April, 30th, 1945

he was denial and tried to convince people he never did anything. He burned down all concentration camps and bodies of all the people he murdered.

AFTER THE HOLOCAUST

After the holocaust the population wasn't ever the same but there are survivors who lived to save the population. Germans still feel guilty to this day about the holocaust . The holocaust maybe over but never forgotten.
