

Bosnia-Herzegovina Genocide

Camryn Saunders

Factors

- ◆ Political:
- ◆ The death of the leader Broz Tito threatened to split union apart
- ◆ Soloban Milosevic started resurfacing problems between the different ethnic groups

- ◆ Economic:
- ◆ Slovenia and Croatia declared independence from Yugoslavia resulting in civil war
- ◆ The unfairness in power between several different groups and the government

- ◆ Social:
- ◆ The society was composed of ethnic and religious groups that had been historical rivals.
- ◆ The society was also made of bitter enemies like the Serbs, Croats, Albanians

- ◆ Geographic:
- ◆ Several countries where emerged together to form Yugoslavia.
- ◆ Countries demanded independence which lead to civil war.

Groups responsible

- ◆ The Serbs were responsible for the genocide
- ◆ Slobodan Milosevic resurfaced tensions

What would happen

- ◆ Men would rape Muslim girls and women
- ◆ If you were a Muslim boy or man you would be shot on the spot or taken to death sites.

Survival

- ◆ People will move away
- ◆ There were camps made with peacekeepers but they didn't have guns so the protection was very limited

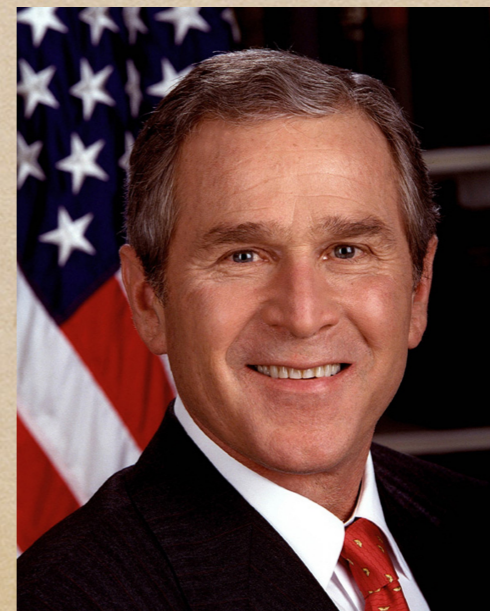

Preventable?

- ◆ if the leader didn't raise problems of the different ethnic groups
- ◆ If there people didn't declare independence

Other countries response

- ◆ Under president George Bush he didn't get the military involved but recognize the independence.
- ◆ After they held trials similar to the Nuremberg trials

Affects

- ◆ 80% Bosnians killed
- ◆ The anger didn't completely vanish and there is still anger and the idea of revenge

Summary

- ◆ Muslim ladies were raped or sexually abused while the men were killed by the subbed due to hatred of the different ethnic groups. The genocide happened 1980-2007 in young logia, bosnia.

