

John Locke influenced the French Revolution by employing a few rights.

Some of the ideas are separation of government,
he employed human rights and church.

He also influenced american colonists to separate from Britain .

When they broke away from Britain they used some of Lockes ideas like separation of government and natural rights.