

Kenneth and Chris's project

Stalin's education of USSR.
By Kenneth and Chris.

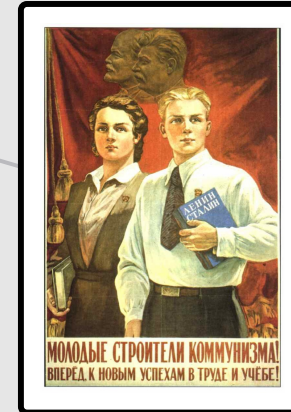

Books were strictly censored
to government standards.

Outside of school, students were expected to join youth groups that taught them how to be proper communists.

The government told teachers
what to teach at schools.

Trade schools and factory schools drafted youth from ages 14-17 for skilled labor.

