

Propaganda

a form of communication aimed towards influencing the attitude of people toward some cause.

Stalin's Propaganda

Goal

propaganda was used to influence the people of Russia's opinions of Stalin, he was portrayed as a great leader.

Censorship

newspapers were controlled by the communist party to censor what they produced. There was censorship of books, paintings, posters, films, and even music during his rule. There were even instances when books were rewritten to show his importance.

Methods

Soviet propaganda was everywhere, there were posters throughout the towns and villages, most films had a propaganda message and all plays and other artworks had to be produced using the Socialist Realism.

Uses

Propaganda was used to make Stalin look like a good person also to get people to support his cause